Photo of a group of senior women lined up along a street curb with a park in the background. They are holding large signs which say "Near your home," "Don't delay," and "Pick up the phone!" with more in the background that are similar but not readable. The woman closest to the camera is wearing a WSDW t-shirt.

Image of four senior women standing with arms around each other. They are posing for a photo while staffing the WSDW voter registration booth at a street fair.
